Pea Ridge.

We have been asked by neighbors "why we did not notice Mrs. Crutcher's death in the Ridge items," and we are sorry to say that we did not know that we felt our pen could do no justice to the memory of that gentle, gracious, loving woman, whose charity was of that quiet kind that "vaunted not itself," whose house was the home of several orphans. Her influence as a Sunday school teacher was great, as each knowing that she professed what she was teaching them. Every one that knew her loved Miss Helen, as she was lovingly and respectfully called. Her death is greatly felt by all her old friends and neighbors. A truly good woman has gone to reward. Those of us who are still living, for one of her daughters came near to us into a house of sickness and death, offering help and giving such sincere sympathy to a sorrowing mother that the hearts of those who heard her were greatly touched, knowing how recently she had been called to part with her own mother.

Mrs. Dickerson, of Cheeateville, still very feeble in health.

Everybody here was greatly shocked at the news of the terrible accident that had happened to Mr. Sam Tracey (son of Mr. James Tracey). Sam was one of our Ridge boys, but now resides in Frankfort. We all hope he may recover.

School commenced here this week with Miss Jones as teacher. She comes highly recommended by Miss Pattie, our popular School Superintendent, and also by former patrons and pupils.

Mr. John Tate was on the Ridge this week, the guest of Mrs. W. H. Wheeler.

Our patriotic and efficient County Judge, Dan Moore, was on the Ridge this week viewing the pike. We do not vouch for the truth of this item, but if he was not he ought to have been, so we hope our information is correct.

Mr. Sam Sparks, who made his home with Mr. Sam lacefield, has gone to reside at Mr. Wm. Lacefield's.

Little Mary Louise Corbin, who also made her home with Mr. Lacefield, has gone to reside with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Fallowfield. Mr. Lacefield will go back to his parents' home.

Mrs. Rebecca Crockett and daughter, Mrs. Fannie Parreni, were visiting on the Ridge last week.

How true it is that every thing is uncertain and changeable in this world. Just across the pike, opposite our gate, is another gate and a house, to which, in the early spring, came a bride, full of life and hope and promise; up to last week the little house across the way has been a light and airy home, but now her neighbor's house is dark and empty. Death has been there and robbed the young husband of his bride and us of a good neighbor. Our hearts are sad within us. Our own home is still filled with life and light, but the thought will come how soon will it be before our house will be invaded by the grim, silent enemy and our home be dark and empty too.

The Frankfort Roundabout

Entered at the post office at Frankfort, Kentucky, as second-class mailable matter.

GEO. A. LEWIS, Editor and Pub.

FRANKFORT, AUG. 19 1899

Well Done.

We desire, on behalf of our city and county, to return their sincere and heartfelt thanks to the Board of Health, collectively and individually, for the splendid manner in which they have handled the small-pox epidemic.

When they started in on their work they were badly handicapped by the opposition of many who should have promptly seconded their every effort, and at every step they have been impeded by the ill-concealed hostility of some of their brethren of the medical fraternity.

Their work was undertaken, carried on and completed without hope of fee or reward other than that of a consciousness of an earnest desire to do their duty and preserve the lives of their fellow-citizens.

It is indeed a marvel how rapidly and successfully they have accomplished the work of completely stamping out this loathsome disease.

Since they began it has been discovered that there had been cases in the city and county for four months before it was found out and the long start which it had was almost an insuperable barrier against a successful battle with it.

Again we say "well done thou good and faithful servants," you deserve and receive the gratitude of a whole city and county.

Vicious Storm.

On Friday night, or rather on Saturday morning, about 2 o'clock, one of the hardest storms of wind, thunder and lightning, which we ever witnessed, visited this city and vicinity. For more than an hour the wind raged and tugged at trees and every thing else that came in its way, and there was an almost continuous blaze of lightning without however, much reverberating thunder. Between 3 and 4 o'clock, the rain, which had been threatening all the while, came down in heavy sheets, and two very sharp and loud claps of thunder came almost together, which rolled along for some considerable time, shaking houses, rattling windows, &c.

One of the flashes of lightning struck what is known as the "Hansbrough house," on the West Side. The house was occupied by Mr. Bud Satterwhite and family. Luckily no one was seriously hurt, although all were shocked by the stroke. Comparatively little damage was done to the house.

In and around the city nearly all the fruit remaining on the trees was threshed off by the twisting winds. Vegetables in the garden were tossed about and cucumber and tomato vines twisted in every direction. Corn was blown down, but beyond these things, and a few trees broken, there was but little other damage.

Purchases Property.

Mr. W. W. Longmoor has purchased the brick cottage of Mr. Chas. F. Exum, corner of Second and Main streets, South Side. The price paid was $2,100 cash. This is a very desirable piece of property and capable of being made a very comfortable home.

Dreadful Accident.

Mr. John Walker, a lineman of a telephone company in Louisville, was electrocuted on Wednesday by coming in contact with a live electric light wire. When shocked he fell on the wire and was held there by a number of other wires until one of his little fingers was burned off and the flesh on his body burned black. He was the son of Mr. John Walker, a former Frankfort man, and a nephew of Col. Lewis Mangan, of this city.

Street Fair.

The merchants of the city had a meeting at the Court house on Tuesday evening to take into consideration the question of having a street fair in Frankfort in October. A committee was appointed to call on every merchant and learn the feeling existing for the fair. If the merchants unite together there is no doubt but the fair will be held, and that it will be beneficial to the city of Frankfort. There must be some liberality exhibited also, or else it will not be a go.

Take the Elk's Fair at Lexington, and see what an organized lodge can do to make as expensive a show as that was a success, and the Frankfort merchants will see what unity of action can do. It requires unity, energy, and push, with liberality added. Then it must be advertised in the county, and in the surrounding counties, and success will follow. There is every reason why Frankfort should wake up and stand as well as her neighbors. Now let us see what the merchants can do if they try, and then it can be seen what Frankfort can do united on any question.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a remarkable loss of your hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by a worm, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness caused by catarrh that cannot be cured by Dr. J. C. Carrer. Send for our catalog, free.

Slightly Off.

The Louisville Free Press, in announcing the approaching marriage of Mr. Waller H. Lewis, of Woodlawn, this county, and Miss Elodie Helm, of Elizabethtown (daughter of the late Gen. Ben Hardin Helm), fall into the mistake of saying that Mr. Lewis is a son of Judge Jos. H. Lewis, late of the Appellate bench. Mr. Lewis is the son of the late Rev. Cadwallader Lewis, the able and scholarly Baptist divine.

Now that the restrictions upon gatherings has been removed, there will be a grand game of base ball at Cove Spring Park this Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The clubs that will be in the mix-up are the Frankforts and the Olympics of Louisville. Go out and enjoy the game.

Fine Fish Caught.

Mr. Hukill caught a buffalo perch, last week, just below the St. Clair street bridge, which weighed about twenty pounds. It was caught on a fly hook with No. 8 spool cotton. That was a lucky catch.

Brave Men Fall

Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poison in the blood, backache, nervousness, headache and tired, listless run-down feeling. But there is no need to feel that. Listen to J. W. Hardin, Head Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run-down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me new strength and good appetite than anything I could take. I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at J. W. Gayle's Drug Store. Every bottle guaranteed.

DEATHS.

WEISENBURG.—At his home near Payne's Depot, on Saturday, Mr. A. H. Weisenburg died of consumption, aged about 42 years.

Mr. Weisenburg was a well known miller, and was an upright gentleman. He was brother of Mr. L. B. Weisenburg and Mrs. V. A. Kalltenbrun, of this city. He leaves a wife and five children to mourn his untimely end.

He had just returned from Colorado, whence he had gone in hopes of recuperating.

SMITH.—At her home in Louisville, on Wednesday, Mrs. Josephine Lemon Smith, widow of the late Col. D. Howard Smith, aged 73 years.

Mrs. Smith was well known and beloved in this city, where she lived so long with her lamented husband. She was a good woman, an earnest Christian, a faithful member of the Baptist Church for many long years.

The remains were taken to Lexington for interment by the side of her husband.

The sympathy of a host of friends is extended to the bereft family.

STIGERS.—At his home near Benson, on Thursday last, Mr. Samuel T. Stigers, aged 68 years, of heart disease.

Mr. Stigers had the misfortune to lose his wife about a year ago, and since then he seemed to gradually lose his hold on life. He was an earnest, Christian man, a member of Mt. Zion Christian Church. His sorrows had been many, as he had lost a wife and eight out of eleven children before he laid down life's burden. The neighborhood has lost a good citizen and his church a devoted member.

LEWIS-HELM.—Authoritative announcement made of the approaching marriage of Mr. Waller H. Lewis of Woodlake, this county, and Miss Eddie Helm, daughter of the late Gen. Ben Hardin Helm and his wife, Mrs. Emily Todd Helm.

Miss Helm is the third son of the Rev. Dr. Cadwallader Lewis, and is a first cousin of the editor of the ROUNDABOUT. As a Christian and gentleman, in the highest sense of both terms, Mr. Lewis is at the front.

Firm Dissolved.

The firm of Ahler & Klaren has been dissolved by mutual consent, Mr. Nick Klaren retiring. The business will be conducted by Mrs. M. Ahler, at the old stand.

Mr. Klaren has taken a position with Rogers Bros., at their bakery and confectionery, No. 38 St. Clair street.

The New Express Agent.

We noticed several days ago that Mr. J. H. Graham had resigned his position as agent of the Adams Express Co. in this city. Last week Mr. Graham left for Louisville. The company has appointed Mr. W. E. Johnson, cashier of the express office in Lexington, to fill the vacancy. Mr. Johnson has been in the employ of the company for some twenty years, and comes with the best of recommendations. He took charge of the office on Monday morning.

Our business men generally had asked the company to appoint Mr. C. Gran Graham, cashier of the local office, to the position, but the company adhered to its long-time rule to appoint those who had been with the company a long time. We are glad to know that Mr. Graham is to retain his place with the new agent.

We welcome the new manager to our city and hope he will find his new place and home to his liking.

Wednesday was the hottest day of the year, thermometer registering 100° in the shade. At nine a.m. the heat was terrible and at 12:30 p.m. the thermometer showed 91°. Many persons slept but little and were almost exhausted.

Won the Prize.

The fine Brown Leghorn pullets, owned by Mr. B. J. Nickles, of this city, won both the first and second prize at the Lexington Fair and Carnival last week.

But few knew that Mr. Nickles was a bird fancier and breeder, and therefore the surprise was greater when he quietly sent his beautiful birds to Lexington and beat out the oldest and most successful fanciers of this region. We congratulate him upon his well earned victory.

A diseased stomach surely undermines health. It dulls the brain cells, energy, destroys the nervous system, and causes fatal diseases. All dyspeptic troubles are quickly cured by Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It has cured thousands of cases and is curing them every day. Its ingredients are such that it can't help curing. J. E. Tyler.

Resignation—Appointment.

Dr. John L. Long, Superintendent of the Institute for Feeble-minded Children, tendered his resignation to Gov. Bradley on Monday, to take effect at once.

Gov. Bradley accepted the resignation and, that afternoon, appointed Dr. Jas. R. Ely, of this city, to fill the vacancy.

Dr. Long is an able and efficient officer and we regret that he has found it necessary to sever his connection with the Institute. He will resume the practice of his profession, probably at his old home in Louisville.

Dr. Ely is one of our most thoroughly equipped and well posted physicians. Is a man of fine executive ability and will make a splendid officer.

His service as one of the Commissioners of the Institute, has made him well aware of the duties which pertain to the position, and it will not be like appointing a new man to the place.

We congratulate the Governor upon his selection and the Institute upon its new Superintendent.

Parted With His Tawny Locks.

Col. Joe L. Bohannan, whose flowing tawny locks have made him a conspicuous figure upon our streets for some time, finally concluded to dislodge himself, and accordingly, on Monday last, had his hirsute appendage cut off. His best friends hardly knew him on the street.

Stamping Ground.

Mr. J. T. Reynolds, of Cynthiana, visited his family here this week. Miss Mattie Kelley was the guest of Miss Lena Kirtley, in Frankfort this week.

Mr. Wm. Cromwell, the attorney from Frankfort, was here on Tuesday.

Messrs. Trundell and Hayner have gone to the Hoggott place, near town, to live.

The crops were all greatly improved by the last abundant rains, especially corn and tobacco.

Mr. J. W. Bond sold 42 stock hogs to Mr. Geo. Pugh for $3.50 per hundred. They averaged about 170 pounds. He also sold to Mr. James Thomason 16 two-year-old heifers at $3.75 per hundred pounds.

Henry Chambers (colored) has gotten himself into trouble by borrowing a horse and coat without the return of the owner, Dr. H. H. He took the horse to Frankfort and left it at a livery stable, and offered the coat for sale as low as ten cents. His chances to go to the pen are good.

We are glad to learn that Dr. E. H. Black is improving and it is thought that he will recover from his fall by which he broke his knee.

YACON.

Water Pipe Burst.

The water pipe in front of the store of Mr. V. Berberich, on St. Clair street, burst and was causing damage to the brick street. The employees of the water-works set to work on the street to repair the break. It was hard work to get the brick up and still harder to get down to the broken pipe. It was finally repaired and the street replaced.

Kodol Despepsia Cure thoroughly digests food without aid from the stomach, and at the same time heals and restores the digestive organs. It is the only remedy that does both of these things and can be relied upon to permanently cure dyspepsia. J. E. Tyler.

Anti-Goebel Democratic Ticket.

The Anti-Goebel Democratic State Convention met at Lexington on Wednesday afternoon. There were some 3,000 delegates present when the Convention was called to order, representing 110 counties.

The following gentlemen were the nominees:

Governor—Hon. John Young Brown, of Jefferson.

Lieut.-Gov.—Maj. P. P. Johnston, of Fayette.

Attorney General—Hon. L. P. Tanner, of Daviess.

Auditor—Frank A. Pasteur, of Caldwell.

Treasurer—John C. Droege, of Kenton.

Secretary of State—Capt. Ed. L. Hines, of Warren.

Superintendent of Public Instruction—Rev. E. O. Guerant, D. D., of Jackson.

Commissioner of Agriculture—G. H. VanDerveer, of Lincoln.

The race is now made up with five tickets in the field.

The Lexington Convention will make a fight for the rooster as the party emblem.

New Departure.

Read the big ad. of Messrs. R. K. McClure & Son, in to-day's paper. We have branched out, as we announced they would do. They are first class and reliable merchants and those wishing bargains could do well to visit them.

Sulphur Lick.

The farmers are wearing smiles since the rains.

Miss Lena Hancock began her school on Monday last.

Every body was delighted with the debate. It was a grand one with a large audience. We were glad to see Mr. Gus Hancock and Mr. Eddie Green with us. The debators are Messrs. Howard Duvall, William Rambo, Harrison Lee, David Rambo, Henry Gwin and Lee others.

Miss Zular Burchfield, of Forks of Elkhorn, is visiting relatives at this place.

Look out, Mr. Zan, or Miss Nan will go back on you. She is very notionate.

Mr. Eddie Wright has not been seen over here for some time. What is the racket now? Has Bertha gone back on him, or has Russ got his time?

Mr. William Rambo looked quite lame last Wednesday night at the debate, because Ida was not there.

Look out, John. Willie will get you out. He is not afraid of getting hit by the dogs.

I guess the farmers are glad the election is over, for the candidates called on them so often when they detained them from their work.

Mr. Burton Claxton has a new buggy. Look out, boy, or he will beat you all.

Miss Ellen Thompson was the guest of Miss Nannie Rambo on Wednesday last.

Miss Bessie Smith was the guest of Misses Bertha and Bettie Daily last week.

We are glad to see Mr. Luther Pierce out again.

Miss Bettie Daily was accompanied home by Mr. Louis Sheets. Look out John, or somebody will be left.

Miss Cora Roberts has returned home from a visit to Swallowfield.

Claude, it is right nice for you and John to know how to fry chickens, but I think you might have divided with us.

BLIND DOG.

Rev. J. M. Yingling, pastor of the Bedford Street Methodist Church, at Cumberland, Md., says: "It affords me much pleasure to recommend Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Had I never used it I have never known it to fail. It is a sure cure when in time." For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Next Week.

We have received a communication from our valued friend, Col. Len J. Cox, of Galveston, Texas, which, owing to the pressure upon our columns by advertisers, we will not be able to publish until next week. It will well repay perusal.

During the civil war, as well as in our late war with Spain, diarrhoea was one of the last troublesome diseases that any had to contend with. In many instances it became chronic and the old soldiers still suffer from it. Mr. David Taylor, of Wind Ridge, Greene county, Pa., is one of these. He uses Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and says he never found anything that would give him such quick relief. It is for sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.

I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die, but tried everything I could think of, but nothing would do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It has been a blessing to me and my little daughter much ever since. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering.—Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by J. W. Gayle, druggist.

Just What You Want.

For the past six months we have been selling The Red Circle Pill, a preparation originated by an old and experienced physician, and used by him for sixty years in the treatment of all liver, kidney and stomach troubles. The Red Circle Pill has not been advertised in Frankfort. Our sales, however, have been phenomenal and in every instance the remedy has given satisfaction. If you are suffering from dyspepsia, colic, griping, constipation, biliousness, jaundice, calcification, vertigo or with an old fashioned headache; if a female from painful or insufficient or excessive menstruation or from any trouble arising from a disarranged or torpid liver, to relieve you, you are directed to refer to your money. Try a box at 25 cents. Once in your family you will never be without them. W. McKey Hardee, J. W. Gayle.
